As a researcher being a Principal, I always encourage my students to explore new ideas and it's implementations, because I want to create the leaders, not the followers, and this could only be possible with collaborative effort, that prepares them for the 21st century challenges.

To borrow the words of Martin Luther King, "Intelligence plus character, that is the goal of true education." We are highly devoted to make it possible for the young hearts and minds to be free and flourish in an ideal environment of caring and proper guidance into well rounded personalities.

Welcome to the GMCP World of Learning. We are a community united in serving every student in every classroom, so that they can shape and secure the future of the society.
